

2018 STRAT Contest
Authorization Form
Registration deadline: July 30th, 2018

An authorization form must be duly filled out by the agency and the client for each case eligible for the STRAT Contest. The form enables the accuracy of the presented objectives, facts, results and credits to be verified.

In submitting a case or cases for the 2018 STRAT Contest, held by Infopresse and the APCM, the agency and the client (Entrant) accept the following terms:

1. The Entrant attests that all authorizations or waivers concerning the elements and subjects of the case entered in the 2018 STRAT Contest have been obtained and that the Entrant is the creator (or has obtained the creator's consent).
2. The Entrant gives the STRAT Contest organizers the right to use the piece in whole or in part to promote the STRAT Contest and its results, regardless of format, media, time period or region.
3. The STRAT Contest organizers take it as a given that the information (case presentation, credits and results) submitted by the Entrant are accurate and were checked jointly by the client and the agency.
4. The STRAT Contest is not morally or legally liable for the pieces submitted.
5. The Entrant attests that the use of a piece will not violate any right, without limitation from any person or company.
6. The form's signatory or signatories are duly authorized by the client and agency to sign on their behalf.
7. The panel's decision is final, without right of appeal.

Note that the submitted pieces will not be returned.
